Looking Back: August 29, 2016 – Jana McGuire, the Center for Food Integrity– Jana's presentation was on The Transparency Revolution: What Consumers Expect from Food and Ag to Earn Their Trust. During this presentation, Jana discussed transparency when it comes to the questions: what's in our food? Who is producing it? How is it being produced? And, how does this impact our health? She gave very detailed information on how to be transparent to our consumers in the Ag Industry and highlighted a lot of the research done to show how some in the industry are stepping up to be more transparent to their customers.
