February Program – KTIC Rural Radio

Speaker – Chad Moyer

Nebraska Rural Radio Association – Past, Present & Future

Chad Moyer will discuss KTIC Rural Radio and where it began and where they are heading in the future.

Chad was born and raised on dairy farm in southeast Minnesota. He studied Radio and TV Broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis, MN and set out to be a farm broadcaster. He moved to West Point in 2007 to become a part of the Nebraska Rural Radio Association. He has won many awards throughout his career including the Soybean Industry Service Award from the Nebraska Soybean Association in 2011, the Media Person of the Year from the Nebraska Agri-Business Association in 2012, the Outstanding Pork Service Award – Industry Outreach from the Nebraska Pork Producers Association in 2016, and the award for Outstanding Contributions to Northeast Nebraska Agriculture from the Northeast Nebraska Experimental Farm Association and University of Nebraska Research & Education Center, Haskell Ag Lab, Concord in 2016.

Looking Back: January 23rd – Erik Bird, the CAO of Eat Fit Go gave us a very informative presentation about Eat Fit Go's meals and overall company goals. Their meals are already picked out, cleaned, chopped, cooked, and packaged using the healthiest and freshest ingredients. With America becoming more and more dependent on processed foods, it was nice to learn of something quick, easy and healthy to eat in place of fast food restaurants' processed meals.
